Hamilton 6 Sept<sup>r</sup> 1864

My dear Waller

Thanking you for your note of Saturday. I am to be at a D<sup>r</sup> Watson's at Bath. He is a friend of Sir Roderick & I agreed to accept his hospitality a good while
ago. A cold shiver
comes over me when I think of my speech at which I am labouring with (figuratively) coat off & sleeves tucked up

[0002]

I mean to give my time to a publication
immediately after Bath
but not con amore.
I did write to Miss Mackenzie I believe twice since I came home -

I had a splendid run in the Highlands to visit my ancestral islet Ulva. The Highlanders cheered me
as "a man & a brother"
and gave me a free ticket "at anytime - to & from any place"
compts to Chimwala

[0003]

and tell him I had capital
"Jigging" We killed
eleven salmon in one forenoon. Have your handkerchief ready
when you read this -
and believe me
whats bred in the bone wont come out of the flesh
D.L.
