[Acc 5973] MANSFIELD.
NOTTS.

My Dear D^r Hamilton

Many thanks
for the parcel recieved this morning - I did not know that I had left the collars though I thought I had left some for Agnes to g[s]end to the washerwoman

[0002]

Oswell was upset
about the train and we were just in time. Webb is better - we have Shelley & Oswell & African &
rocky mountain
talk has driven out the pains & he walks about
quite brisk - M^{rs} Webb was giving

[0003]

me a scolding this [73] morning for the
going on Tuesday
next - she thought I was to be here

till starting on the 11th I shall go to Sedgwick on Wednesday &
pack up on Friday
on which night
you had better
write your friends
as must come back - on Saturday

[0004]
they are going to keep Agnes so I must come back

I wonder if
M^s Binney
would come on that upset for it will be impossible for me to go to him for which I am sorry

I am &c
