

Selected Digital Library Projects

Working with curators, faculty, research units, and external partners, the UCLA Library's Digital Library Program coordinates the creation, management, and delivery of digital collections of texts, including archives, manuscripts, and monographs; images, including photographs, posters, and maps; audio, both published and unpublished; and video in support of the Library's mission. Selected projects listed below are freely accessible to all through the Digital Library portal at <<http://digital2.library.ucla.edu>>.

In addition, many digitized UCLA Library items, including children's books, cookbooks, historic newspapers, manuscripts, and a variety of other special collections materials, are freely accessible through both the Online Archive of California at <<http://www.oac.cdlib.org>> or the Internet Archive at <<http://www.archive.org>>.

AIDS Poster Collection

More than six hundred public health posters from forty-four countries illustrate attempts by a variety of institutions to educate and alert their citizens about AIDS and offer advice and information in visual form.

Archive of Popular American Music

Selected from sheet music in the UCLA Music Library's Archive of Popular American Music, a research collection covering the history of popular music in the United States from 1790 to the present, this digital collection provide access to versions of sheet music now in the public domain.

Campaign Literature Archive

This online archive offers access to a subset of the collection of ephemeral election materials such as posters, pamphlets, and copies of Web sites held in the Campaign Literature Collection in the Charles E. Young Research Library.

Environmental Activism in Los Angeles Oral History Series

Oral histories with local environmentalists trace the development of environmental activism in Los Angeles.

S. Charles Lee, Architect

This online collection contains drawings, plans, and photographs documenting Lee's professional career, including his work as a developer and as the most prolific architect of art deco movie palaces in Los Angeles.

Los Angeles Photograph Collection

Featuring more than five thousand of the three million images contained in the Los Angeles Times and Los Angeles Daily News photographic archives housed in the Charles E. Young Research Library Department of Special Collections, this collection chronicles the history and growth of Los Angeles from the 1920s to the '90s.

June L. Mazer Lesbian Archive

The electronic component of this outreach and collection-building partnership offers expanded access to collections developed by the Mazer Archives on lesbian and feminist history and culture.

Strachwitz Frontera Collection of Mexican and Mexican-American Music

This collection contains approximately forty thousand recordings of music from the border regions of Mexico and the United States documenting many types of popular lyric songs. Because of copyright restrictions, only a snippet from the beginning of each recording is available from off campus; the full content of each recording is accessible on campus.
