I sent to the Cape for £150 to be left in Col.<sup>e</sup> Nunes' hands.
Pay Fito for 46 or 50 panjas of clean rice and anything else he may send - also £18 to S<sup>r</sup> Manuel's agent for the sheep and goats we recieved - or rather place the money in S<sup>r</sup> Galdino's hands to be given on receipt of M<sup>r</sup> Thorntons bill of exchange.
Pay Ali & Mabruk
at the rate of six dollars [...][p]er month per month for Ali that is 5 of agreement & one of backshish - and four dollars per month as per agreement 13 & 1 of backshish and send the amount given in a note to ~~Captain~~ Admiral Washington - the dat[...][es] are from 21st March 1863 to the probable arrival at Zanzibar.

Make urgent representations to the Captain of any man of war as to the necessity of sending into Quillimane ^ or Kongone in supply of provisions and ma[...][ke] any arrangements you can to have them sent up quickly - If necessary write an official letter and on his refusal send a copy to the Foreign off[ice]

If there is any difficulty with Tito - Try if Col.<sup>e</sup> Nunes will undertake to said rice & and provisions & pay himsel[f] out of the money which is to be delivered to him namely £150
